

LALS 385

Latino Social Movements in the United States

The focus is on Undocumented Social Movements. Studies contemporary undocumented movements in the US, informed by and in solidarity with hemispheric migrant-led campaigns. This course considers questions of citizenship, surveillance, visibility, criminalization, and refusal. Includes worker-led and reproductive justice organizing, DREAM activism, UndocuPoets, Rainbow Caravans, and #AbolishICE campaigns.

Fall 2022

TR

11:00am–12:15pm

Instructor

Prof. Barbara Sostaita

CRN

38910

